ANNIVERSARY OF TITANIC DISASTER

Great Liner Plunged to the Ocean's Bottom a Year Ago Today.

THE HEROISM OF MEN.

1,517 Souls Were Lost in World's Greatest Marine Catastrophe—Many Suits Are Filed.

New York, April 14.—Just a year ago—more than 2,000 persons were joyful that they had a share in the maiden voyage of the greatest boat the world ever knew, playing tennis on deck, floating in the tempered waters of a swimming pool, dining in luxurious saloons, chatting in drawing rooms more regal than a king's palace and listening to the world's finest music. Then came a crash, darkness, death, heroism, cowardice, the manning of lifeboats, the escape of those who could get away from the sinking hulk-featured the last moments of the Titanic as she sank April 14, 1912, and the most frightful sea tragedy of all time was enacted.

It was late in the evening when the craft ground into the iceberg off the Newfoundland Grand Banks, four days after she started on her first trip. The night was clear, the sea smooth. It was 11:46 ship's time, or 10:13 New York time. The orchestra was playing on the decks, the women of the first cabin were lingering in the lighth and warmth and gaiety of the dining rooms where there was music and bubbling life. The men were smoking their good-night cigars. In thesecond and third cabins, there was like joy, with the prospect of "home" or a "new land" but a few hours away.

And then came the towering berg, the belated heeding of repeated warnings that ice was in the vicinity, the grinding crash and the icy sea. The whole tale has been often told—how brides were torn from husbands; how children were put into boats by frenzied parents who hoped their little ones might be saved even though the perished themselves; how the men, save for a few shameful exceptions, stood back and waited for death while the women were given first place in the life-boats; how the musicians struck up "Nearer, My God to Thee," and played it until the water smothered their melody; how the Carpathia, rushing to the rescue, stood by and gathered up survivors; how relatives in New York, in agony of anxiety, besieged the offices of the White Star line for the news that was three days in reaching land. That disaster stands out grim and awful today, though the world has again been shocked by tales of cyclone and flood that have exacted great toll of life.

The Titanic launched May 31, 1911, represented the best that marine architects could build. She was built for capacity, comfort and speed. She was 882.6 feet long, 92.6 feet beam, was of 46,326 tons register and cost $7,500,000. She carried 2,223 persons including the crew.

Of these, 1,517 were lost and 706 were saved. Of the 329 first-class passengers, 199 were saved, or 60 per cent.; of the 285 second-class passengers, 119 were saved, or 42 per cent; of the 710 third-class pasengers, 164, or 25 per cent. were saved; of the crew 24 per cent. were saved.

Among the ill-fated passengers on the ship that went down were some of the prominent figures of contemporary life. There were Colonel John Jacob Astor, Major Archibald W. Butt, Francis D. Millet, the artist; William T. Stead, journalist and philosopher; Jacques Futrelle, novelist; Benjamin Guggenheim, merchant; Charles Melville Hayes, railroad-president; Isidor Straus, merchant and philanthropist; John B. Thayer, railroad vice-president; George D. Widener, traction magnate; Henry B. Harris, theatrical manager; Clarence Moore, sportsman; Arthur Ryerson, lawyer; Frederick Sutton, merchant; and the gallant skipper, Captain E. J. Smith. These are but a few of the illustrious names and the story of how each man died is a romance of itself.

One of the most thrilling experiences of the disaster was that of Colonel Archibald Gracie, of Washington, who was sucked down in the vortex carried up in the swirl in time to seize a bit of wreckage and was saved. His death a short time ago is believed to have been a direct result.

Following the disaster, hundreds of damage claims were filed against the Oceanic Steam Navigation Company, controlling the White Star line. Tomorrow has been fixed by the court as the final day for reception of these and it is believed the total amount asked will exceed $8,000,000. From this list the name of Mrs. Madeline Force Astor is absent but Mrs. Harris seeks $1,000,000 for the death of her husband and Mrs. Futrelle, $300,000. Many of these claims, though some are sordid, reflect thrilling lights of the catastrophe.

With one year gone, with investigations by America and Great Britain ended, the one fact stands out—the "unsinkable" had sunk and man had again failed to conquer the sea.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

An auto boat was used a sa coffin at the funeral of East Cowes, Eng., on Saturday of Miss Ethel Kate Saunders, only daughter of Mr. Samuel E. Saunders, the well-known autoboat builder. The body was placed in a leaden shell and then deposited in the specialllly constructed hull of an autoboat, which was conveyed on a white painted boat trolley, drawn by employes of the firm to Whippingham Church, near Osborne, where it was interred.

Clinging to the pilot of the engine with one hand while she held the unconscious form of her companion with the other, Miss Mary Farber, a small, 17-year-old girl, early yesterday rode more than two miles from the West Park avenue crossing, where their horse and buggy was struck by a Baltimore and Ohio pasenger train, to the Mansfield, Ohio, pasenger station. Her screams there brought assistance. None of the train crew knew that anything had been struck until the station was reached. Miss Farber escaped with only a few bruises. Her companion, Fred Lutz, aged 18, is suffering with two farctures of the skull and probably will die.

John Brooks Henderson, former senator from Missouri, and author of the thirteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, died Saturday night at the Washington Sanitarium, in Takoma Park. Senator Henderson had been an invalid from kidney trouble for several years. Mr. Henderson was born near Danville, Va., November 16, 1826.

The Susquehanna river is trying to snatch its annual toll of lives. Off Washington Borough, near Port Deposit, Md., there is pinioned a houseboat 50 feet long and manned by five men, members of the McCalls Ferry Clubs. This boat, a new one, left Columbia yesterday morning. When the upper end of the rapids were reached the boat was picked up and thrown upon a ledge of rocks. The crew was seen at dark yesterday evening making frantic efforts to release the boat. No boats can get to them, and their escape will depend upon their own efforts. There is no way of communication with the imprisoned people, but the opinion is freely given that should the boat be lifted off the rock there will be but little chance of its getting through the rapids.

Gen. Pedro Ojeda, commanding the remnants of his federal garrison of 300 troopers at Naco, Sonora, Mexico, surrendered to the United States troops of the border patrol at Naco, Arizona, yesterday after having withstood a siege of state troops which lasted for five days, and in which more than half his troopers were killed. The surrender was hastened by the attack upon the federal garrison by the band of Yaqui Indians under General Alvaro Obregon, commanding state troops, who, at daybreak, burst in upon the little garrison across the border and fought viciously. The dead on both sides has been estimated at 200.

Worshipers at the Church of the Redeemer, Baltimore, who wished to attend all the revival exercises held at the church yesterday but who lived too far from home to go to supper and to return in time for the services had their meals served in the basement. The ladies of the church provided the supper and saw that everyone had his or her share. Rev. Joseph K. Snyder, the pastor, went about among the guests greeting them and joining in their conversation.

WOMEN TO ARRIVE NEXT THURSDAY

WOMEN IN TRADE.

There are a number of the gentler sex in Alexandria who are engaged in business for themselves, and a great many more who hold important positions in the business life of the city, among them will be found a cigar maker, six dressmakers, four milliners, fixe women who manage retail stores, a manager of sewing machine agency, one woman with an important position in the post office, an advertising solicitor, several bookkeepers, and a score who hold important positions as stenographers.

JUMPED OR FELL FROM TRAIN.

Dead Body of Man Found Near Burke's Station a Few Days Ago.

One night last week a man appeared at the Union passenger station for the purpose of taking a train for Richmond. He carried a bag contsining plaster's tools with the mittials "F G." upon the same. He appeared to have been drinking, and after a southbound train on the Southern Railway had left the station the man was found to be missing. He had not called at the baggage room for his bag, and it was supposed he had boarded the Southern train.

The next morning the dead body of a man was found alongside the railway track near Burke's station. From an examination it was seen that the unfortunate had jumped or fallen from a train.

Yesterday a man appeared at the Union station and asked to be shown the bag containning the tools. He recognized it as having belonged to his brother and stated that he had visited Burke's station, procured the remains and had them interred in Washington. He did not leave his name, nor that of his late brother.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.

J. Fred Birrell Will Have Opponent in Race For Delegate.

Announcement is made that Major E. W. R. Ewing, of Ballston, will enter the democratic primaries for the House of Delegates in opposition to J. Fred Birrell, who announced his candidacy several months ago.

As has been the case in by-gone years, the county will during the coming campaign, it seems, claim the Delegate. The late Frank Hume, who resided in the county, was the last delegate from that section. Shortly after the return of Virginia to the union the city and county were allowed two delegates, and one from the city and one from the county were chosen. For a long time, however, but one has been allowed; hence the county has occasionally claimed the representative.

Mr. Birrell was a candidate for the office four years ago but was defeated by Robinson Moncure. Mr. Moncure was elected two years ago without opposition and declined to serve another term this year. Mr. Birrell is a member of City Council from the Second ward. He served for several terms a sa clerk to some of the importpriant committees of the House of Delegates.

MISSION FOR MEN OPENS.

Large Congregation Attend Opening Services at St. Mary's Last Night.

A mission for men was opened last night at St. Mary's Catholic Church by the Redemptorist Fathers. The opening services were attended by an unusually large congregation, more than 500 men being present, among them a number of non-Catholics. The services will be continued throughout the remainder of the week, and doubtless large congregations will attend all of the services. The mission is for non-Catholics as well as ntholics. The priests in charge of the mission are able and forcible speakers, being veteran missionary priests.

The order of services during the week, as announced yesterday, will be as follows: Masses at 5:30 and 7 o'clock each morning followed by short instructions and evening services at 7:45 o'clock including the recitation of the rosary, benediction and sermon.

A mission for women conducted by the priests during the past week was concluded with services at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon which were attended by an unusually large congregation.

To The Democratic Voters of Alexandria:

Your attention is called to the fact that your poll taxes must be paid on or before May 3rd, 1913, in order that you may vote in the general election on November 4th, and the primaries prior to that date.

POPE'S CONDITION IS STILL CRITICAL

Tracheal Bronchitis Causes Coughing With Symptoms of Pneumonia.

DOCTORS IN QUARREL.

Heart Stimulants, Including Digitalis, Have Effect on Lowering Pontiff's Temperature.

Rome, 6:30 p. m.—With the Pope's fever mounting rapidly, a sharp drop in the weather's temperature, accompanied by the heaviest rain of the season tonight alarmed the papal physicians. It was feared that the raw Atmosphere might provoke a fatal coughing fit.

Rome 6 p. m.—It was stated at the vatican that the Pope's fever had returned to an alarming extent and his temperature mounted to the height it maintained last night, 102 degreee.

Rome, 4 p. m.—A high church dignitary, long an intimate of Pope Pius, said those within the vatican did not expect the Pope to survive the day.

Rome, April 14.—The vatican physicians, Prof. Ettore Marchiafava and Dr. Andrea Amici, issued this bulletin:

"The Pope passed the night tranquilly. He has no fever this morning and his general condition is good."

Rome, April 41. 12 a. m.—Pope Pius X slept little and early today his temperature was above 102. Dr. Andrea Amici spent the night at the pontiff's bedside when the treachal bronchitis brought on fits of coughing with pneumonia symptoms.

Today there was no trace of albuminuria,and Prof. Marchiafava said that the kidney trouble is entirely gone. Despite the coughing the heart action is no weaker and the physicians now are wholly concerned with the Pope's lungs.

Rome, April 14.—Though both the papal physicians made hopeful statements concerning the Pope's condition,activities at the vatican today indicated that the church officials regard the situation as very grave.

It was learned today that the crisis of the Pope's ailment will come within twenty-four hours. If he survives another day the end may be postponed indefinitely, days or weeks, even months. In order to meet the decisive conditions, the physicians regularly administered heart stimulants, including digitalist. This has the effect of lowering the pulse and temperature.

By order of Cardinal Merry Del Val, papal secretary of state, the swiss guards searched entire vatican, from top to bottom ,and expelled every one who could not show that he had business there.

The doctors had their first professional difficulty today and it was said they quarreled violently. Amica wanted ta publish the Pope's pulse, temperature, and respiration and Marchiafava refused to allow it. Being the senior physician he carried his point.

The Pope's bronchtis was greatly improved. Nephritis has almost entirely disappeared, and his heart action is no worse, but the physicians were greatly concerned over a fresh symptom, the hardening of the Pontiffs arteries.

Father Vives y Tuto, the monk, who was with the Pope for forty-five minutes during the night, supposedly taking his confession, was kept within call all day.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.

Rev. Dr. Duffey, recently appointed pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, preached his opening sermon yesterday. He was greeted by a large congregation among whom were many members of other denominations. The text of Dr. Duffey's morning discourse was 2 Thes., iii, 1 —'Finaly, brethren, pray for us that he word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you."

At night he spoke from John xiv., 19—"Because I live, ye shall live also." Both discourses were interesting, instructive and edifying and appreciated by all who heard him.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There will be a called meeting of the Board of Managers of the Children's Home this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Children's Home.

(Justice H. B. Caton, Presiding.

John Huskins, charged with assaulting Edward Tate with a bottle, was fined $5.

William Lewis, colored, charged with assaulting his wife, was fined $10

Seven persons, charged with allowing dogs to run at large without muzzles, were fined $5 each. Three who live beyond the city limits were dismissed, an two were dismisse with the understaning that the animals were to be killed. Four persons against whom charges had been brought had their cases continued.

WILL DESIGNATE ABATTOIR.

Health Committee Will Order Beef Killed at O'Dell's Slaughter House.

The committee on health of City Council, composed of F. C. Spinks, C. B. Marshall, James Fitzgerald, A. D. Brockett, with W. W. Ballenger as chairman, expect at their next meeting, to officially designate the slaughter house of Aaron O'Dell, which is located outside the corporate limits of the city, as a municiipal abattoir.

The health committee will make arrangements with Mr. O'Dell to do all killing for local butchers who, under the provisions of the law covering the slaughtering of animals for food, are compelled to have their beef killed and dressed at the Municipal Slaughter house, at a stipulated sum for each animal.

The section in the health laws which cover the sale of meat in Alexandria prohibits the sale of meat not officially inspected by the Federal government or by the local health officer. This provision was provided to protect local consumers of meat from against the practice of several persons who, residing outside the city, it is said, offered meat for sale in Alexandria which is not inspected and which the District laws prohibited from being sold in Washington.

BREWERY HEARING APRIL 22nd.

Judge Thornton Will Hear Protests Against Arlington Brewery Second Court Day.

At the request of Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey, of Alexandria county, Judge Thornton of the Alexandria County Circuit Court has set the second day of the approaching term of court, April 22, at 10 o'clock in the morning, as the time for hearing arguments against relicensing the Arlington Brewery Company. W. W. Wright, counsel for the voluntary organization opposed to the relicensing, is preparing evidence for presentation at that time.

BITTER FIGHT IN D. A. R. CONVENTION

Contest for Office Overshadows All Other Questions.

SESSIONS ARE OPENED

Greeting by President Wilson This Afternoon—Mrs. William A. Smoot a Candidate.

Alexandria is unusually interested in the meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which opened its sessions in Washington this morning, on account of the candidacy of Mrs. William A. Smoot of this city, for vice-president general on the ticket headed by Mrs. William Cummings Story.

Mrs. Smoot is one of Virginia's most distinguished and gifted daughters and is ideally fitted, not only for the position to which her friends desire to see her elevated, but to the highest office in the society. She is greatly interested in the candidacy of Mrs. Story and last week entertained her at a reception at her home at which time were invited the members of Mount Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., of this city, and the Alexandria Chapter of the Colonial Dames.

The contest ofr the control of the society has been a bitter one and this year marks Mrs. Story's third attempt to win, as she has been defeated on two previous occasions. The three candidates, each of whom have a full ticket in the field, are Mrs. Story, Mrs. John Miller Horton and Mrs. Bryan. The Mrs. Horton is the administration candidate.

All day yesterday the women were active in their canvassing of votes. Mrs. Horton's headquarters is on the sixth floor of the Willard nad Mrs. Story is on the second floor. The hotel resembled a convention at a national election for President of the United States, and, as one woman expressed it, "the Daughters are so deep in politics that they make the convention lobbyists of Baltimore and Chicago look as insignificant as a Methist prayer meeting on circus night."

Since the national society, Daughters of the American Revolution have reached the membership of more than 100,000 and the growth is at the steady rate of more than 6,000 a year, and the society has an income of approximately $110,000 a year, and its politics becomes of more than casual interest.

The congress was opened this morning at 11 o'clock but the formal opening did not take place until three o'clock when the following program was carried out:

Greeting by President Wilson.

Address by the president general, Mrs. Matthew T. Scott.

Address by Secretary of State Bryan.

Address by Secretary of Jusserand, of France.

Address by the Rev. Dr. H. R. McKim, president general Sons of the Revolution, District of Columbia.

Address by J. M. Richardson, president general Sons of the American Revolution.

WILL CONTINUE WORK.

Although the week officially designated as clean-up week is over, the officials of the health department state that the efforts to make Alexandria a clean city will be continued with unabated vigor. The police department, who last week started their active house to house canvas of inspection are to continue that work until al premises in Alexandria have been inspected and everything possible done to clean up.

Tuesday evening last, the 16th birthday of Miss Florence Rex was the occasion of a charming party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rex, at their home, on Porter street. The hot house yielded their treasures of carnations, hyacinths and ferns, which transformed the house into a bower redolent with sweet odors; sixteen candles burned on the mantel, which was artistically decorated in cut flowers. The hostess was assisted in receiving by her house guest Miss Jeanette Risheill, of Alexandria, who by her gracious manner and sweet voice, added much to the occasion. The hours sped swiftly. With music and conversation and attractive games, the evening was brought to a close by the serving of delicious refreshments. After many good wishes expressed, the happy band bade farewell. JUDGE KELLEY NOT LOCATED.

Judge George W Kelly, of Boston, Mass., probate counsel for Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, the Boston woman accused of poisoning her husband who was Rear Admiral Joseph Eaton, U. S. N., is in Washington. A report was circulated to the effect that he was on his way to Alexandria, Va., where he expected to unearth evidence to be used in the defense of Mrs. Eaton who was born in this city.

As far as can be learned, Judge Kelley made no visits to this city. Had he come to Alexandria it is not apparent what part his visit could possibly play in the defense of his client, as she and her parents left here over a third of a century ago. Most of the present generation never heard of the family, while many older residents have long since forgotten them.

ON LONG ENDURANCE RIDE.

Man and Wife Expect to End 10,000 Mile Trip About June Fifteenth

On a long endurance ride, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Mascott, of Texas, reached the city yesterday. They were dressed in khaki, their faces well tanned by the wind and weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Mascott set out the first day of October last on a long bicycle ride of 10,000 miles. The journey will end at Grand Rapids, according to Mascott, about June 15, though they have until August 1, as the terms of the agreement were that they should travel an average of 1,000 miles per month and then complete the whole trip in ten months.

Mascott and his wife ride an old-fashioned tandem. While in Alexandria, they were the guests of Sergeant Scott, at his home on south Lee street, and during their stay they met a number of Alexandrians.

In South Carolina recently Governor Cole Blease was flatly turned down when he offered to place his signature in a record book carried by Mascott. Mr. Mascott and his wife stopped over in Greensboro several hours and in producing his credentials pulled forth a worn leather bound book in which were the signatures of the governors and mayors of many states and cities of the country that have been visited. In turning the leaves he came to South Carolina, and there in a bold hand was inscribed the name of the lieutenant governor of the state.

"We had gone into the executive mansion," said Mr. Mascott, "and the governor said, "Well, I guess you all want my signature, do you."

Mascott said he faced the governor for a moment and then replied. "No, sir. We are not getting the signatures of governors today; we're getting those of the lieutenant governors." Lieutenant Governor Aull is said to have signed his name promptly.

In explaining his action Mascott said he had spent a good part of his life in the service of the flag and in support of the constitution, and he did not want the signature of a man in his book who had said what Blease is reported to have said at the convention of governors in Richmond. He declared that he did not want to have the name of such a man in his possession.

COUNTY HOLDS UP FRANCHISE.

Board of Supervisors Wary of Giving Sweeping Rights to C. & P. Phone Company.

An application by the Chesapeake and Potomac telephone company to the board of supervisors of Alexandria county on Tuesday for a sweeping franchise to use the public roads for poles and conduits was laid over until the adjourned meeting April 17.

Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey asked for time to determine how far the board could go under its town council powers to protect the public rights in granting the franchise.

The board not only did not give the Chesapeake and Potomac Company what it asked for, but revoked temporarily whatever rights the Falls Church telephone and telegraph company has to the use the public ways The whole matter will be straightened out at the adjourned meeting.

RAINS BRING A CURRENT.

Recent Heavy Downpours Bring Much Drift Wood Down the Potomac.

The almost incessat rains of the past four days are producing their effect on the river, and while there has, so far been, no freshets, the tides in the Potomac have been making high, while there is some current in the river. Much driftwod is passing this city.

Rain fell at intervals yesterday, but during the early part of last night the heavens became clear and the moon and stars were shining. In the meantimet there was considerable lightning in the eastern neavens. The clear conditions, however, were short lived, as the skies soon became obscured again.

Rainy conditions continued this morning with the wind in the old quarter—northeast.

As a result of the heavy rains, nearly two inches having fallen, the Potomac river at Williamsport, Md., is up several feet and the creekes through the county are bankful. One-third of an inch of rain fell in a few hours yesterday, and badly washed truck patches and roads.

Slightly warmer temperatures, less rainfall and fair weather generally east of the Rockies during the forepart of the week are the probabilities offered by the Weather Bureau, in the weekly bulletin issued last night.

"The distribution of atmospheric pressure over the Northern Hemisphere," says the bulletin, "is such as to indicate that temperature will average near or above the normal the coming week in all parts of the country east of the Rocky Mountains, and slightly below normal on the Pacific slope. The rainfall during the week will be generally below normal.

"Fair weather will prevail during the next several days over the greater part of the country east of the Rocky Mounetains, while rain will be frequent during the week in the North Pacific States.

"The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear over the Far West Monday or Tuesday cros sthe Rocky Mountains about Wednesday, the Great Central Valleys Thursday or Friday and the Eastern states near the close of the week. The disturbance will preceded by warm weather, be attended by showers and thunderstorms and be followed by cold weather, with frosts in the Northwestern States and Rocky Mountains and Plateau Regins."

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

MES BACK TO VIRGINIA.

ell Named by Board of Medical University.

hmond, April 14.—Announcement nade yesterday by Dr. S. C. Mit- president of the University of Carolina, that he had finally de- to accept the presidency of the l College of Virginia, and that d begin his new duties after his work is concluded at Columbia e. Two weeks ago a committee the board of visitors, charged e important task of finding a s head for the consolidated , virtually agreed upon Dr. ell. Subsequently, the executive ittee warmly approved the , and over the long distance tele- e other members of the board ad- n approving voice.

board was informed yesterday of Dr. Mitchell's acceptance al- h first public announcement was Saturday night at the Masonic le, where a dinner was given by board of visitors to the faculty 600 students of the two medical eges, Dr. Mitchell being introduced he new president. He was vocif- ly applauded, thegeneral opin- ing expressed that the commit- ad acted with commendable wis- in bringing him here.

t is generally accepted that Dr. art McGuire will be dean of the w faculty, but the board decided to ve a business man at the head of institution, a man who could give entire time to the work. This Dr. Guire was unwilling to do. It was reed that while the new president ed not necessarily be a physician, it as deemed best to elect a man who ad had extensive experience in uni- rsity work, Dr. Mitchell happily ossessing the abilities so earnestly esired.

GOOD TIMES IN NORFOLK.

Permits Issued for Erection of Nearly $1,000,000 in New Buildings.

Norfolk, Va., April 14.—With an ag- gate of 258 permits issued, a large er of them calling for expensive ctures, building operations in Nor- since January 1, have shown an tivity which the officials of the ilding Inspector's office regard as decided leap ahead of former years. xclusive of scores of additions and terations on small buildings, the ag- gate cost of building started in olk since January 1, is $930.700. The second biggest item entering into this total is the apartment houses which Building Inspector Holland has issued permits this year. Twenty apartment house permits have been granted, the buildings costing from $30,000 to $50,000 each, and making an aggregate of $351.000.

Aside from the relatively enormous aggregates of the number and of the cost of the apartment houses going up since January 1, the most striking feature of the building activity of the year is in residences. Nearly 150 per- mits for residences have been issued, the cost varying from $1,500 each. The total for residences is $360.000. This is but $9,000 more than the cost of the apartment houses authorized during the same period.

Commercial buildings for which the inspector has given permits this year show a total cost of $219,000, includ- ing the Alvah H. Martin building going up at the northeast corner of Cameron and Washington streets. The cost of this building is recorded at the inspector's office as $138.000.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

Interesting Exercises at Monticello Yesterday Afternoon.

Charlotesville, Va., April 14.— The 170th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson was observed at Monticello yesterday. The delega- tion of the Daughters of the Revolu- tion from Illinois failed, however, to arrive in time for participation in the exercises. Their special car did not reach Charlottesville until last night, so the pilgrims kept on to Washington without a stop.

In the absence of the westerners the members of Albemarle Chapter, D. A. R., acted as hostesses. The ex- ercises took place at the tomb at 2 o'clock. Representative Henry T. Rainey, of Illinois, made brief speech referring to the close bonds of sympathy and gratitude existing be- tween Illinois and Virginia.

The wreath sent by President and Mrs. Wilson was placed upon the tomb by Representative Jefferson M. Levy. It consisted of ivy and sage palms and was tied with broad white satin ribbon. A second wreath, from the Albemarle Chapter, was placed upon the tomb by Mrs. W. R. Duke, the vice regent. It was of galax leaves, tied with the Daughters of the American Revolution colors—blue and white.

The members of the chapter, with their guests, then repaired to Mon- ticello, where they listened to an ad- dres sby Representative Levy, who took occasion to refer to the pain that he had suffered due to "much misinformation, innuendoes, and un- proved statements" circulated con- cerning his ownership and care of Monticello. He said that during his ownership of nearly thirty years Monticello has never been and is not for sale, and denied that he had ever directly, or indirectly, placed a value or fixed price upon it or entered into negotiations of any ind looking to that end.

He declared that he would continue his stewardship of the shrine, pre- serving it with all the care and lav- ishness of former years, appealing to the people of the United States to weigh his ownership and compare Monticello of today with Mount Ver- non.

Commits Suicide.

Gate City, Va., April 14.—A tele- gram to Sheriff Dougherty, from Ta- Koma, Wash., states that Isaac Meade commited suicide there Saturday night. Meade was in jail, having been arrested for the murder and robbery of A. J. Porter in Scott county, in November, -1906. Sheriff Dougherty would have started after him today. Meade was arrested for the crime four years ago, but escaped.

Dies From Burns.

Richmond, Va., April 14.— Inez Withers Robinson, the 4-year-old daughter of Prof. and Mrs. James T. Robinson, died Saturday morning from burns received while in her room. The little girl was alone when the accident occurred. She is sup- posed to have gotten hold of matches and igniting them, seting fire to her clothing. The child's father is as- sistant principal of the John Marshall High School.

Store Robbed And Burned.

Richmond, April 14.—The store and stock of goods owned by B. F. Gwalt- ney, in Sussex County, near Milton, a small station on the Norfolk and Wes- tern Railway, were destroyed by fire about 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning. Subsequent events proved that the store was first robbed and then set on fire by the thief, in order to conceal the crime.

MYSTERIOUS CASE.

Reported Murder Committed in Din- widdie County Last Sunday.

Richmond, Va., April 14.—The po- lice of this city are investigating a reported mysterious murder case in Dinwiddie county, alleged to have oc- curred near the camp on the Norfolk and Western belt line last Sunday af- ternoon. That there was a murder the police are confident, as the alleg- ed victim has not since been seen or heard of. The story, as told to the police by Mattie Bland, a negro wo- man, of this city, who declares that she was a witness to the murder, is substantially as follows: She was vis- iting at the camp Sunday afternoon when a difficulty or fuss occurred between some negroes, men and wo- man; that she sa wa woman named Bettie Carter, alias Cogbill, twice shoot an old colored man known as "Pap," so called on account of his age, and that she saw two negro men shoot him after he had fallen that she subsequently saw the body of "Pap" dragged to a field nearby and buried. The Bland woman fur- ther says that she was offered $25 to say nothing about the affair, but fearing that there might be trouble she told the story to some of her friends, and subsequently told the po- lice.

On her statement the police late last night arrested Bettie Carter, alias Cogbill, and John Dixon, on the charge of committing the crime.

Three Years for Bigamy.

Richmond, Va., April 14.—In the Husting Courts, South Richmond, Al- bert Clarke, an iron moulder, was Saturday found guilty of bigamy, and was sentenced to three years in the state prison. There was extenu- ating circumstances in the case, and Judge Wells stated that Governor Mann would be petitioned to grant Clarke a full pardon. Action with the Governor will be taken Monday.

Clarke was charged with marrying Mrs. Mattie Wills, of Swansboro, while a formre wife, formerly Miss Snead, of Norfolk, still lived. Clarke claimed that he married under the impression that he was legally di- vorced from his wife.

Conference Abandoned.

Harrisonburg, Va., April 14.—On account of an epidemic of scarlet fe- ver at Lacey Spring, Rockingham county, announcement is made that the annual conference of the La- dies' Missionary Association of the Virginia Conference of the United Brethren Church, which was to have been held at Lacey Spring, on April 25th, has been abandoned.

Bitten by Rapid Dog.

King George, Va., April 14.—Last week a dog bit Willie and Eugen Treakle, of Maple Grove, Westmore- land county, and Roger McKenney, the 7-year-old son of Vondell Mc- Keney, of King George. The dog was killed, the head sent to Washington for examination, and it was found that the animal had been suffering from rabies. Much excitement pre- vails in the neighborhood where the boys reside. They have been taken to Richmond to take the Pasteur treatment.

YOU ARE LOOKING OLDER THAN WHEN I SAW YOU LAST
Have You Ever Had This Said of You Because of Grey Hairs
It is most embarassing to have a friend remark that you are "looking older". Grey hairs are not becoming, people may tell you so, but they don't mean it.
There is one quick, sure, easy way of getting rid of grey or faded hair—simply use Hay's Hair Health.
Benefit by the experience of thousands of others, who are using Hay's Hair Health. It brings back the fine, glossy, brilliant color of your hair—restores the grey hairs to their natural color immediately, and keeps the scalp free from dandruff.
People voluntarily recommend Hay's Hair Health. It is not unusual for them to say: "I want to tell others about it. It's perfectly splendid." Try it yourself, today. You'll be surprised how quickly the grey hairs disappear; how beautifully dark and glossy your hair will remain after using it. Druggists sell more Hay's Hair Health than all others combined because their customers prefer it and they know that it can be guaranteed satisfactory.

VICE PRESIDENT WARNS THE RICH.

The utterance of Vice-President Marshall at the National Democratic Club banquet in New York last Saturday night have set many people to thinking. His remarks voice the conclusions many others have arrived at in recent years, as they call attention to a serious menace not only to the United States, but to every civilized country on the planet. Some of Mr. Marshall's words should be pondered well. Among other things he said:

Present advantage shouts our eyes to the permanency of our institutions. Not what we are not what we stand for, but what we can make has come to be the measure of governmental duty and individual conduct And yet, despite the theory of life, Carl Marx and hunger and a longing for happiness are abroad in the land. They are sitting as unknown guests at every frugal meal. They are perturbing the waking hours and coloring the dreams of millions of Americans who, after all, have the right to say what shall or shall not be.

Have backward-looking and inward looking men ever stopped to consider what might happen to them here in the great state of New York if those who have not, should take it into their heads to make common cause against those who have? They talk about vested rights, and in their talks assume they have both an inherent and constitutional right to pass their property down from generation to generation until some reckless descendant shall have displaced it.

Suppose a governor and a general assembly in the State of New York should repeal the statutes of descents for real and personal property, and the statute with reference to the making of wills, on their death how much vested interest would any relative have in the property which fell from their nerveless hands at the hour of dissolution? The right to inherit and the right to devise are neither inherent nor constitutional, but, upon the contrary, they are simply privileges given by the State to its citizens.

Let backward-looking and inward-looking men read the returns of the last election. Let them put on masks, go down into the East side and hear what people are saying about them. Let them not close their eyes and dream that what has been, forever will be. All that a man hath will be given for his life, and he is not wise, who, having plenty, risks it all to get a little more.

The belief that there is an unequal distribution of wealth in this country has been supplemented by the belief that much of it has been obtained through special privilege, that it did not come by labor, skill, industry, barter or trade, but through watered stocks and bonds; through corners on commodities, through corruption of legislatures, through the sale of impure foodstuffs, through wrecking railroads, through all the devices known to man whereby the law is not abrogated, but chloroformed.

THE ATTEMPT TO KILL KING ALFONSO.

Almost as soon as the bells ceased tolling at the obsequies of the unfortunate King George of Greece, a deliberate attempt at regicide was made in Madrid. A would-be king killer fired three shots at the Spanish king, who had a narrow escape from the bullets. The fiend was captured, and like Adam of old, he placed the blame upon his wife, alleging that she is morally responsible for his deed.

The saying "uneasy lies the head that wears a crown," is ancient but its truth seems to be more apparent now than ever. While the wedding bells were ringing when Alfonso wedded Queen Victoria and the procession was filling the streets with royal subjects anxious to see the royal couple a desperado threw a bomb enclosed in a bouquet at the carriage containing the happy pair. The bomb exploded, wrecked the carriage, killed some attendants and the horses and caused the greatest consternation. The young queen's nervous system received a nervous shock fro mwhich she has never, it is said fully recovered. She and her husband, fortunately, escaped uninjured. The latest attempt upon the life of her husband will, of course, augment her anxiety.

SEEK FRIEDMANN CURE.

More than 100 sufferers from tuberculosis, in its many forms, will assemble at George Washington University Hospital on H street, near Thirteenth, Washington, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, each of them eager and hopeful of receiving the Friedmann treatment.

All day long applicants have dragged themselves through the chilling rain in the hope of treatment, only to be told that they will have to come again later in the day. Others have telephoned to plead for treatment. Practically all of those applying have been told to come to the hospital at 2 o'clock.

Dr. Friedmann's visit to Washington, his clinic this afternoon, and his conference yesterday with Surgeon General Blue and Assistant Surgeon General Rucker, will not alter one iota the government attitude with respect to his cure and will not hasten the government's report or weigh in its consideration. An official statement to this effect was made today .

LOSES LIFE IN QUICKSAND.

Actress Dies While Fleeing From Husband.

New York, April 14.—Grace Ainsley Thurston, an actress is believed to have lost her life in the quicksands of Hackensack Meadows, while hunting for the home of relatives in Leonia, N. J., following her flight from her husband, Alfred L. Thurston, after a disagreement.

Thurston has been leading man of a repertoire company on tour in the west. He returned to New York today in search of his young wife hoping to effect a reconciliation with her.

After making many inquiries as to his wife's whereabouts, Thurston was confronted last night with almost positive evidence that his wife had been sucked under the treacherous sands of the Hackensack Meadows. He trailed her to a roadhouse at Larchmont, from where she left in search of relatives in Leonia.

Several days ago a woman's bonnet thought to be the one worn by Mrs. Thurston when she was last seen alive, was found by a small boy near Hackensack.

IVANHOE MAN ENDS LIFE.

C. B. Gentry Commits Suicide by Shooting Himself in Breast.

Ivanhoe, Va., April 14.—C. B. Gentry, a well-known citizen of this place, committed suicide by shooting himself at the family home, about 7 o'clock Saturday morning.

He left his wife, with their only child, in her room, saying that he would go out and try to collect some money. A few minutes later Mrs. Gentry heard a pistol shot in the adjoining room, and ran to find her husband lying on the floor, a pistol in his right hand and blood gushing from a wound in the breast, near the heart Dr. Jewet was immediately sumoned and soo narirved, but found the unfortunate man dead.

Mr. Gentry was about 35 years of age, a quiet, industrious law-abiding citizen, and respected by all who knew him.

A short, but severe earthquake was felt at San Bernardino, Cal., at 2:45 o'clock yesterday morning. There was no damage, although the shock was strong enough to rock buildings.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

WHEN A MAN MARRIES.

We cheer for the fellow who goes out and wins
A wife to preside o'er his flat,
But when a man marries his troubles begins,
And there's more truth than poetry in that.

His glad bachelor days are a tale that is told,
His old bachelor friends are tabooed,
For 'tis said that their ways are entirely too bold,
So stays right at home like he's glued.

Becoming domestic is surely a task
For the man who has traveled the pace,
And he dare not enthuse over bottle or flask,
Or look in a poker chip's face.

He gives up tobacco, he cusses no more,
He does what has Ma-in-law bids,
He loses his sleep while he's walking the floor,
When the whooping-cough tackles the kids.

If he marries a widow his plight's even worse,
Telling her the old lies is no fun,
They were told by the fellow who rode in the hearse,
The lamented and late number one.

His wife soon gets wise to his plans for a lark,
And she's up to his cleverest dodge,
When he says he was scared to come home in the dark,
Or he springs that old gag 'bout the lodge.

His daily existence is free from allay,
No sports she'll allow him to seek,
The only diversion she'll let him enjoy
Is the prayer-meeting held once a a week.

When a man marries he's nailed to the mast,
So he winds up the clock in the flat
And retires soon after his evening's repast,
When he's locked up and put out the cat.

We hope none of those sausage manufacturers stand in with the man who's in charge of the dog wagon.

If this rain keeps up another day some misguided fellow will go straight home and knock his mother-in-law in the head with a club. At least he will if he shares our feelings in regard—to rainy days.

Who is the man who taxes costs
Which litigants must pay?
Who is the man to whom you go
Upon your wedding day?
Who is the man at Sunday school
Who'll on the organ play?
Why it's our genial Clerk of Court,
Our N. S. Greenaway.

ALLEN APPEALS.

Majority of Members of Legislature Did Not Answer Request of House Clerk.

Richmond, Va., April 14.—One of the most interesting chapters in the history of the attempts to secure executive clemency for Floyd and Claude Swanson Allen, is to be found in the efforts made to interest members of the General Assembly, with their results. This part of the proceeding has never been published, except the announcement that legislators had been approached on the subject.

George O. Green, of Clifton Forge, clerk of the House of Delegates was the moving spirit in the unusual proposal to have the lawmakers express themselves to the Governor in behalf of the Allens. The fact that members of the legislature were approached as such, writes a new page in Virginia public affairs.

It seems that sixty-three of the 138 members responded, with varying results. Aa majority—75—appears not to have answered the circular letter sent out by Mr. Green. There are two vacancies.

SPRING EXAMINATIONS.

The State Board of Education has fixed upon April 24, 24 and 26 as the days upon which the spring examination of teachers will take place. All teachers will take notice and act accordingly.

Applicants are expected to furnish their own pens and ink.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Harrisonburg, Va.—Jacob P. Kagey, 77 years old, a retired farmer and Confederate veteran, died Thursday near Cross Keys. He leaves a large family. He had a sister, Mrs. Mark Knight, in Hagerstown.

A riot occurred at Valparaiso, Ind., Thursday night when 500 university students attempted to raid the Memorial opera house. Nine students were jailed. Several have broken bones and other injuries. Policemen were hit over the head and knocked down with clubs. When they saw their companions locked up the mob was frantic and attacked the jail officers with bricks, bottles, and clubs. The police fired on the rioters, but no bullets are known to have taken effect. Street lights, windows in the jail and theater, and those of an interurban car were smashed.

Members of the Industrial Workers of the World will not be admitted to citizenship in any court of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, or Montana, as a result of an understanding reached yesterday at Seattle, by Chief Naturalization Examiner John Speed Smith and his assistants, who will challenge all such applications for citizenship. Smith came into national prominence last year through obtaining cancellation of the citizenship of Leonard Olsson, of Tacoma, a member of the Industrial Workers of the World, by Judge Cornelius H. Hanford, on the ground that Olsson was not attached to the principles of the Constitution.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF RESIDUE.

Trustee's sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House' 'tract of land located in Mt. Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax County, Va., containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March term, 1913, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria, Virginia, at the above described property.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximateely twenty-seven hundred (2,700) acres, of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation or Horsemanship. The balance between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by the old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash and residue in 3 equal annual payments at one, two and three years from the date of the confirmation of the sale with interest from the said date of the confirmation of sale at the rate of six per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually with right to anticipate the time of paying the deferred payments, secured by retention of title till paid.

SEVEN PERSONS KILLED.

Excursion Train Derailed—Cars Telescoped.

Montreal, April 14.—Seven persons are dead and fifteen were injured as the result of the derailment of an excursion train yesterday afternoon on the Montreal-Chambly branch of the Central Vermont Railway, about 11-2 miles out of St. Lambert.

The train was carrying about 700 passengers, who had taken advantage of the free trip given by a real estate firm to prospective purchasers of lots at Albani subdivision, and was returning to Montreal at a speed of between 20 and 30 miles an hour, when from some cause as yet unknown the engine and the first three coaches left the rails.

The telescoping of the ends of the derailed coaches caused most of the fatalities, nearly all of which occurred in the first two cars. Steam from the boiler of the locomotive, which was thrown over on its side, filled the coaches, and hampered passengers in escaping.

The passengers from the other cars formed a rescue brigade and worked hard to extricate the dead and injured from the wreakage. Their efforts were fruitless in the case of some of the victims, whose bodies were so firmly wedged in the shattered remains of the coaches that it took the wrecking crew hours to release them.

As the train was crowded many persons were standing on the platform, and many of those were killed or injured. Betwen the first and second coaches two bodies were crushed.

The little girl's mother, herself slightly injured in the accident, stood near the rescuers for hours as they tried to extricate the child's body, and pleaded pitifully with them to hurry their work. They had not been successful up to midnight.

A man was pinned under a truck, and although fatally injured, lived for several hours, while efforts were made to effect his release. He never recovred consciousness.

GLASS OPPOSED TO CHANGE.

Will Not Vote to Alter Constitution to Provide Woman Suffrage.

Congressman Carter Glass, has written a letter in regard to the question of woman's suffrage in which he expresses his opposition to any change in the Federal Constitution. In giving his reasons for this position, Mr. Glass says:

"I cannot conceive of any circumstance that would make me willing to vest the Federal government with power to deal with the question of suffrage in the states. The Federal Constitution I think wisely, left the question of suffrage with the respective states, and it was due to this fact alone that the very civilization of the South survived the frightful period of reconstruction.

"If Virginia, or any other southern State, with its complex social conditions, desires to enact equal suffrage within the limitations of the fifteenth amendment, it has ample power under the constitution to do so.

"I am utterly and eternally opposed to giving any combination of Northern and Western States, with their different social fabrics, the right to say what shall be the conditions of suffrage in Virginia. Therefore, I shall never vote for or favor any proposition to alter the Federal Constitution on this subject, except to repeal the fifteenth amendment, if it should ever become practicable."

ATTEMPTS TO KILL ALFONSO.

Would-be Assassin Fires Three Shots at King.

Madrid, April 14.—For the third time in his reign, King Alfonso narrowly escaped yesterday being the victim of an anarchist attempted against his life. Three shots were fired at the king yesterday afternoon in the streets of the capital by a native of Barcelona, Rafael Sanchez Allegro, who was immediately overpowered.

King Alfonso owes his escape to his own courage, quickness, and skilled horsemanship. Accompanied by his staff he was riding along the Calle de Alcala returning from the ceremony of swearing in recruits, when a man sprang from the sidewalk and seized the bridle of the king's horse with one hand, presenting a revolver point blank with the other.

The king, realizing the situation, with lightning rapidity, dug his spurs into his horse, which reared violently. His quickness saved his life. The bullet, instead of burying itself in the king's breast, struck the horse on the neck, but so close was it that the king's left hand glove was blackened by the powder discharge.

Before the assailant was able to pull the trigger again a secret service man sprang upon him. The two men fell to the ground locked in each other's arms, struggling furiously. The assasin managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots at the king in rapid succession, but the officer knocked his arm aside, and the bullets flew harmless through the air.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Report of Work Acomplished During Past Year.

Large congregations attended services morning and evening yesterday. The pastor Rev. Dr. Jno. Lee Allison, preached on "The Power of Spiritual Freedom," in the morning and "The Gospel, the Power of God" at night.

At the morning service the report of work done during the past year was read. The following are some interesting items in the report: Membership of church, active roll, 427, added during year, 22; members on roll of Main Sunday school, 353; first church mission, 87; and Payne street Chapel, 38; making a total of 528. Amounts contributed to benevolence, foreign missions, $778; home missions, $300; education, $150; Bible cause, $25; orphan's home, $46; congregational (including building fund), $21,159. The years work has been a success but the congregation hopes for larger service next year.

The Presbytery of the Potomac will hold a meeting tomorrow in the Franklin street Presybrdw odilnPdfwlylly in Street Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, at which time the Second Presbyterian church, of this city, will be represented by Rev. John Lee Allison, D D., pastor, and A. G. Uhler and W. E. Latham.

ENFORCING DOG LAW.

Seventeen Persons Haled Before the Police Court This Morning.

Looking to a more effective enforcement of the city ordinance requiring the muzzling of all dogs permitted to run at large on the streets, the police department yesterday inaugurated the plan of arresting all persons violating the ordinance. Heretofore the dogs have been captured and dispatchd without any attempt being made to unish their owners. As a result of the new procedure 17 owners of dogs were in the Police Court this morning. James Mitchell, James Lacey, Mrs. A. Mankin, William Cogan, Mrs. J. A. Wooton, W. F. Burns, and Laura Newman, were each fined $5; Tillie Poindexter A. Catts, Sarah Carter, William Sutton and John Allen were dismissed, as the evidence was not conclusive that they had violated the law, and James Lightfoot, George Studds, Thomas Snellings, and John Henderson had their cases continued.

CENSORSHIP OVER PICTURES.

Reels Illustrating Crime Must be Omitted After Tonight.

The ordinance prohibiting the showing of scenes of crime in moving pictures goes into effect after tonight, and a long-drawn-out fight over the right of City Council to pass such a law will be the result of the effort of the police department to see that the statute is enforced. It is claimed by the proprietors of the moving pictures shows that a literal enforcement of the act will drive them out of business as practically all of the reels which are now produced show crime in some manifestation or another. According to their views, all pictures taken from the great opera, Shakesperian plays and historial works, which have received the commendations of leading educators and preachers, will be barred in Alexandria, as they all contain scenes where crime is a big element.

The ordinance was passed at the instigation of Police Juctice Caton who will try the cases of violations of its provisions.

HOOFF JURY FROM RICHMOND.

Judge Barley Orders Venire From Capital—Corporation Court Items.

In the Corporation Court, which opened for its April session this morning, Judge Louis C. Barley instructed that a venire of 25 be brought here from Richmond from whom will be selected the jury to try Lewis Hooff, formerly general manager of the Mercantile Railway Building and Loan Association, for the third time.

Mr. Hooff's trial will take place on April 23rd, and Sergeant Cox will go to Richmond the last part of this week to summon the jury.

The following cases were set for trial this morning: Francis J. Robinson against Joseph T. Jones, appeal from Justice of Peace April 22nd; W. A. Smoot & Co., against W. H. Crump, April 25th. Howard W. Smith, receiver against the directors of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation April 28th.

OFFICIAL.

An ordinance to amend and re-enact an ordinance entitled, 'An Ordinace to provide for the creation of the office of, and the election of, a Superintendent of Gas, and to define his duties and powers"; approved March 14th, 1900.

Be is ordained by the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia:

Section 1.—That there shall be elected by the City Council of Alexandria, on the second Tuesday in April, 1913, and every two years therafter, a Superintendent of Gas, whose term of office shall commence on the 1st day of May of the year of his election and continue for two years or until his successor is elected and qualified; and the said Superintenden of Gas may be removed at any time for cause.

His duty shall be to exercise a general supervision of the City Gas Works, meters, gas mains, service pipes and all matter pertaining to the manufacture of gas and its proper distribution throughout the City, and he shall have full power to employ and discharge the employes for these purposes; the regulation of the pay of employees, so employed, however, shall be within the discretion of the Committee on Light.

He shall render to the Clerk of Gas, at the end of each month, a report showing the number of tons of coal received, used and on hand; and amount of purifying material, lime, oxide and other materials received, used and on hand; the amount of coke, tar and gas lime produced, sold and on hand, and the amount of gas produced, the amount of consumption and amount in the holder or holders, and the amount of gas mains, service pipes, fittings, meters and other supplies on hand at the works.

He shall also render to the Clerk of Gas daily a report of the amount of coal used and coke produced, and the amount of coke used in the furnaces of the retorts; which report will enable the Committee on Light to ascertain correctly the percentage of coke necessary for firing the retorts and also the percentage of coke to be accounted for by sale.

Section 2.—No person shall be eligible to the office of Superintendent of gas until he shall have been certified to be competent as a practical gas manufacturer, after examination by a board of three experienced manufacturers of gas; to be designated one by the Committee on Light, another by the President of the Board of Aldermen and the third by the President of the Common Council. The expense of this board of examiners shall be paid by the City, (and any person having passed such an examination, or having heretofore served as Superintenden of Gas of this city) or any person who has heretofore been employed by the Committee on Light as Superintendent of Gas or to superintend the Gas Works), shall be eligible for re-election, without further examition.

Section 3.—It shall be the duty of said Superintendent of Gas to submit to the City Council at the commencement of each fiscal year, or oftener, if called on by the City Council or the Committee on Light, a report, stating the condition of the Gas Works, gas mains, etc., and all alterations and improvements therein made during the preceding year, with a detailed statement of the costs of the same; and he shall also submit recommendations relative to such improvements as he may deem advisable, with an estimate of the costs of the same. That it shall be the duty of said Superintendent of Gas to attend all regular meetings of the Committee on Light for the better information of said Committee, on the working of the gas plant, and that he shall give all the information and advice in his possession.

Section 4.—The Superintendent of Gas shall receive as compensation in full for all services rendered under this or any other ordinance passed or hereafter to be passed, a salary of Twelve Hundred ($1,200) Dollars per annum, payable monthly.

Section 5.—The Superintendent of Gas shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, enter into bond with surety or sureties, to be approved by the Finance Committee, in the sum of Two Thousand ($2,000) Dollars, to indemnify, secure and save harmless the City Council of Alexandria from any loss or damage that may arise from his neglect or default to discharge all the duties of his office, faithfully. He shall not directly, or indirectly, have any interest in any contract, agreement, purchase or lease made by or with the City Council of Alexandria.

Section 6.—That all ordiances or parts of ordinances, in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance, are hereby repealed.

Section 7.—This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

Passed the Common Council April 8, 1913.
R. D. BRUMBACK, President.
Passed the Board of Aldermen April 8th, 1913.
F. F. MARBURY, President.
Approved April 11, 1913.
THOMAS A. FISHER, Mayor.

DANIEL R. STANSBURY, C. C.

Four hours after hearing several shots fired in an apartment above them early yesterday, tenants of an East Fourteenth street, New York, flat became suspicious and notified the police. The door was forced and the body of a man about 28 years old lay on the floor. Two bullet wounds in his head showed the cause of death. Investigation revealed every evidence of a carefully planned murder. Efforts to identify the body failed.
